UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS THAT UNITE US ALL

Whether it's an once in a life time opportunity, or a bond that spans a lifetime, Canucks Sports & Entertainment is focused on creating unique connections and experiences for fans and their favorite athletes and performers.

Consistently ranked by Billboard Magazine as one of the top venues in Canada, Rogers Arena is the home of unforgettable live experiences for guests. Rogers Arena is the venue of the National Hockey League's Vancouver Canucks and plays host to some of the largest musical acts in the world. It will also be home to the National Lacrosse League's Vancouver Warriors. In 2010, Rogers Arena was rebranded as Canada's Hockey Place during the 2010 Winter Olympics from February 13-18 and will be one of the main venues of the 2017/18 World Junior Championships. Former tenants also include the Vancouver Grizzlies of the NBA (1995-2001), Vancouver Ravens of the NLL (2001-2004) and Vancouver Voodoo of the RHI (1996).

Since opening on September 19, 1995 with a sold out show by Bryan Adams, Rogers Arena has welcomed more than 29 million visitors, playing host to over 150 sporting and entertainment events each year. Last year, over 11 million guests came through the doors over the course of the year. Through the support of passionate Canucks fans, Rogers Arena played host to 474 consecutive sell-out games over a span of 11 seasons from 2002 to 2014.

UNIQUE MOMENTS ARE BUILT BY THE DETAILS

CSE has a philosophy of building meaningful relationships with their fans and place an important focus on hospitality. From the way each guest is greeted, to the presentation of food, décor in the building, game entertainment, all areas of service, products and entertainment are examined closely to provide a premium experience.

There are a range of seating options available for guests, that all offer great sightlines of games and events. For guests wanting to share an experience in a group setting or to network with likeminded individuals, CSE has created a number of world-class premium club areas for guests to enjoy. Some of these examples include Encore and two Loge areas. Private, executive suites are also available in addition to a variety of great seating options in the upper and lower bowl.

Innovation and local are what inspire the menus around Rogers Arena. From the concourse to suite and club areas, the cosmopolitan feel of the Vancouver food scene extends around the building. CSE also provides a number of options for specific needs, whether it is dietary restrictions or family friendly options.

GROWING A COMMUNITY

CSE places great value in its local community and has strived to demonstrate corporate stewardship.

CSE's charitable arm, the Canucks for Kids Fund, has contributed over $64 million dollars to local charities that support children's health and wellness, education and grassroots hockey. Players, management, coaches and staff have also dedicated their time to support a number of initiatives, including hospital visits, hockey camps and Live 2 Give – an annual event where staff are given a paid work day to donate their time to a charity of their choice. CSE also celebrates its vibrant and diverse community, taking part in such events as the Pride Parade, the Viasakhi Festival and have also hosted Lunar New Year's themed games.

Based in one of the most environmentally progressive cities in North America, CSE seeks out ways to decrease their ecological footprint and make a positive impact on the environment. A founding member of the Green Sports Alliance, which originated in the Pacific Northwest and grew to over 230 sports teams from 20 different leagues, CSE has implemented a number of green initiatives. In 2013, Rogers Arena partnered with SHIFT Energy in order to bring an automated Energy Optimization System to the building. The system monitors the energy consumption of the building in real-time, adjusting aspects such as temperature and lighting accordingly to decrease energy cost by 20%. The building's emphasis on local products and support of sustainable farming, as well as the continued efforts of CSE to encourage a zero waste policy, contribute to their environmental successes.

AQUILINI GROUP

The Aquilini Group is a diversified family business founded more than 50 years ago by Luigi Aquilini. The group is now run by his three sons: Francesco, Roberto, and Paolo. The Vancouver-based organization owns and manages a global conglomerate portfolio that includes commercial, industrial and residential construction and developments as well as businesses in food and beverage, hospitality and entertainment, agribusiness, vineyards, and sustainable aquaculture and renewable energy.

Since gaining 100% ownership of the NHL Vancouver Canucks in 2005-06, the Aquilinis have invested significantly to upgrade Rogers Arena with a special focus on fan experience. From 2007 to 2019, over $150 million has been spent on in-arena upgrades, including new suites and clubs, expanded concourse space, sound systems, and enhanced food-and-beverage options.

On the ice, the team enjoyed a long run of sustained success, including six Northwest Division titles, two President's Trophies, and a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 2011. Canucks fans supported a consecutive sellout streak at Rogers Arena from 2002 to 2014, one of the longest in the history of professional sports. The team has been rebuilding and is an upward trajectory heading into the Canucks' 50th anniversary season.

In the community, the Aquilini Group launched the Canucks Autism Network and supports the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, the East End Boys Club, the Canucks for Kids Fund, and many other charities. Since 2004, when the Aquilinis first took an ownership stake in the team, Canucks for Kids Fund has raised nearly $50 million to provide vital resources and life-saving care to families across British Columbia.

JIM BENNING

GENERAL MANAGER

Born: April 29, 1963

Birthplace: Edmonton, AB

Residence: Vancouver, BC

Family: Wife, Rhonda; Sons, Brandon and Nicholas; Daughters, Danica and Isabella

Jim Benning enters his fifth season as General Manager. He became the 11th general manager in Canucks history with his appointment May 21, 2014.

Since joining Vancouver, Benning has led a rebuild of the club's hockey operation, acquiring a young core of talent through trades, free agency and drafts. In his first NHL Draft with Vancouver, he selected Jake Virtanen and Thatcher Demko. In subsequent drafts, he selected notable players including Quinn Hughes, Brock Boeser, and Elias Pettersson.

Benning joined the Canucks after serving in the capacity of Boston Bruins Assistant General Manager for seven seasons which culminated in a Stanley Cup Championship in 2011. In that role he was an advisor to General Manager Peter Chiarelli on all matters pertaining to player evaluation, trades and free agent signings, in addition to assisting the General Manager in overseeing all individuals in their specific duties for the Bruins. Benning initially joined the Bruins as Director of Player Personnel in 2006.

The Edmonton, Alberta native also previously held a 12-year tenure with the Buffalo Sabres. For eight of those seasons, Benning served as the team's Director of Amateur Scouting. In that position, he oversaw the club's scouting staff and led the team at the annual NHL Entry Draft, in addition to scouting prospects at the high school, college and junior hockey levels as well as in Europe.

A former defenceman, he was drafted by the Toronto Maple Leafs, sixth overall, in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft following a record setting season with the WHL Portland Winter Hawks. He set WHL records for most consecutive games with an assist (30 games; 53 assists) and point (45 games; 95 points) as well as most assists (111) and points (139) by a defenceman. Following his WHL career, Benning played nine seasons in the NHL with the Maple Leafs and Vancouver Canucks. He played one season in Italy before retiring as a player in 1992 and attended college for one year before joining the Anaheim organization as an amateur scout in 1993/94.

Jim and his family reside in Portland, OR, during the offseason.

HISTORY

TEAM HISTORY

On October 9, 1970 the Vancouver Canucks played the first game of their inaugural NHL season before 15,062 people at the Pacific Coliseum on Renfrew Street, a 3-1 loss to the visiting Los Angeles Kings. The game marked the start of an NHL tradition on the West Coast.

Long before an NHL team was formed, the city had already established a strong hockey tradition with the Vancouver Millionaires, who played in the Pacific Coast Hockey Association from 1912 to 1922. At home in the 10,500 seat Denman Arena, the Millionaires swept the Ottawa Senators in a National Hockey Association interleague series to win the Stanley Cup in 1915 (the NHA became the NHL in 1917).

The Vancouver Canucks owe the origins of their name to the Pacific Coast Hockey League (1945-51) and Western Hockey League (1952-69) Vancouver Canucks, who enjoyed notable success, capturing six President's/Lester Patrick Cups, two PCHL titles and four WHL titles. The name "Canuck" is generally defined as a slang word to describe a Canadian. Also used in early political cartoons then comic books and personified by fictional character Johnny Canuck, the word Canuck was a term of endearment reflecting the courage and bravery of Canadian soldiers defined during the World Wars. Today it's equally synonymous with the team, its players and fans and an accepted term for a Canadian.

The original Vancouver Canucks roster was built through an Expansion Draft to accommodate the NHL's newest members, Vancouver and Buffalo, defining the character and identity of the club. Orland Kurtenbach, the first team captain, and Pat Quinn, a defenceman and later General Manager, Head Coach and President, became prominent figures throughout the club's history and are celebrated today as members of the Canucks Ring of Honour for their impact and legacy on the franchise.

In a welcome letter from the club's first season General Manager and Hockey Hall of Fame inductee, Norman R. (Bud) Poile told fans "one thing you can be certain of is the fact that nobody on our club is going to go down without a fight." While the first seasons failed to produce post-season berths, the core was a fierce and formidable group led by Kurtenbach that included Andre Boudrias, Don Lever, Dale Tallon, Dennis Ververgaert and Dennis Kearns.

Still a young team, Vancouver's original ownership group led by Tom Scallen sold the franchise to local businessman Frank Griffiths in 1974. Over the span of the next 22 years the Griffiths family's stewardship of the team witnessed two Stanley Cup Finals, Frank Griffiths' induction to the Hockey Hall of Fame, the succession of leadership to son Arthur Griffiths and the development of significant community contributions, notably the creation of Canuck Place, North America's first free-standing children's hospice.

Vancouver's first playoff series win in 1982 ignited a postseason run to the Stanley Cup Final. The architect of the team and Hockey Hall of Fame member, General Manager Jake Milford had drafted and traded for key players like Stan Smyl, Thomas Gradin and Richard Brodeur in recent years who contributed significantly to the success of the run. Only two losses in three playoff series versus Calgary (3-0), Los Angeles (4-1) and Chicago (4-1) flawed a record march to a Championship match up versus the New York Islanders. Halted by New York in a decisive 4-0 series win, the postseason run still produced two significant moments in club history.

The first was the emergence of Stan Smyl who assumed responsibilities as captain due to an injury to Kevin McCarthy. Smyl served as captain and leader of the team for eight seasons and became the first player to have his number 12 retired by the Canucks. The 1982 Stanley Cup run was also significant for the start of a playoff tradition now widely used in sports, 'Towel Power'. During the second game of the Campbell Conference Championship in Chicago, Interim Head Coach Roger Neilson expressed his frustration of the game's officiating by placing a white towel on the end of a stick held high in mock surrender. Players on the bench followed suit and when the series returned to Vancouver, fans showed their support by waving white towels of their own. A Canuck tradition was born and to commemorate the iconic moment a statue of Roger Neilson holding a stick with a towel on end now stands outside of Rogers Arena.

It took 10 years before Vancouver experienced playoff success again and two more before another storied run to the Cup Finals in 1994. During that time the organization saw the return of Pat Quinn as General Manager and within a few years he added the responsibility of Head Coach to his role. One of Quinn's first major moves was to trade for goaltender Kirk McLean and over the next two years he selected Trevor Linden second overall and Pavel Bure 113th in the 1988 and 1989 NHL Drafts respectively.

Linden was named captain at the age of 21, his fourth NHL season, after sharing the captaincy with Dan Quinn and Doug Lidster the previous season. He was the youngest permanent captain in team history. The 1991-92 season was also Pavel Bure's first in the NHL and with 34 goals and 26 assists (34-26-60) through 65 games, Bure won the Calder Memorial Trophy as the league's rookie of the year. Pat

Quinn earned the Jack Adams Award as coach of the year and along with Bure, became the first recipients of NHL awards in franchise history. Bure's number 10 became the fourth and latest jersey to be retired by the club, when it was raised permanently to the rafters on November 2, 2013 following his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame the year prior. The late Pat Quinn was enshrined into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2016.

A team on the rise, the Canucks returned to the playoffs on the strength of back-to-back 60 goal seasons from Bure, finding early-round success in 1992 and 1993. In 1994 Vancouver entered the postseason as the seventh seed and played an entertaining first round series against Calgary. Fighting off an early exit to the Flames, who led the series three games to one, the Canucks forced each of the next three contests to overtime highlighted by a Game 7 double overtime win.

The road to the Finals continued with series wins against Dallas (4-1) then Toronto (4-1), where a double overtime goal clinched the series for a second time that postseason. Advancing to the Finals against the New York Rangers, Vancouver sealed the first win with a 52 save performance by Kirk McLean. New York won the next three games and facing the same elimination scenario as their first playoff round, Vancouver won Game 5 and held off the Rangers in Game 6 in what many fans and historians consider the greatest game in franchise history.

The game is particularly memorable for the call made by legendary, Hall of Fame broadcaster Jim Robson as Trevor Linden crawled to the bench after taking a hit with seconds remaining: "He will play, you know he'll play, he'll play on crutches! He will play and he'll play at Madison Square Garden on Tuesday night." A cup victory eluded the Canucks however as they fell short by a score of 3-2 in Game 7 at the Garden.

The seasons that followed brought change as Vancouver sought a return to playoff success. In 1995-96, the Canucks moved to a new home in downtown Vancouver, General Motors Place (renamed Rogers Arena in 2010). That same year Arthur Griffiths teamed up with John McCaw Jr. and the company was renamed Orca Bay Sports and Entertainment (OBSE); in 1996 McCaw assumed full control of OBSE.

Roster changes were taking place too, including a trade to acquire Markus Naslund from Pittsburgh on March 20, 1996. Though not immediate, the significance of the trade soon became apparent. The additions by trade of Todd Bertuzzi on February 6, 1998 and Brendan Morrison on March 14, 2000 saw the departures of Trevor Linden and Alexander Mogilny respectively but ushered a new era in franchise history when Naslund, Bertuzzi and Morrison were made line mates during the 2001-02 season.

Nicknamed the "West Coast Express" by media and fans the line became one of the most prolific scoring threats in the league. Naslund ranked top-five in NHL scoring for three seasons and was a Hart Trophy finalist, while Bertuzzi twice ranked among the NHL's top five scorers. All three players set career single-season scoring highs while playing together.

Over seven consecutive seasons, Naslund led the team in scoring including six 30-plus goal seasons, three 40-plus goal seasons and league honors in 2002-03 when he earned the Ted Lindsay Award following a 104 point campaign (48-56-104). A Canucks captain for seven seasons, Naslund's number 19 was officially retired on December 11, 2010.

While members of the West Coast Express had a more immediate impact on the roster, General Manager Brian Burke also had an eye to the future, focused specifically on the 1999 Draft selections of twin brothers Daniel and Henrik Sedin. A sequence of three trades on the morning of the Draft allowed the Canucks, who already held the third pick, to add the second overall selection and bring the Sedins to Vancouver – Daniel second and Henrik third overall.

Change and a new direction also occurred off the ice as the locally-owned Aquilini Investment Group (AIG), led by Luigi Aquilini and sons Francesco, Roberto and Paulo Aquilini, reached an agreement to purchase a 50 per cent share of OBSE in November 2004. AIG purchased the remaining 50 per cent of the NHL club and arena in November 2006 and in 2008, the company was renamed Canucks Sports & Entertainment.

Francesco and the Aquilini family have led the Canucks through the longest period of sustained success on the ice, including six Northwest Division titles, two President's Trophies and a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 2011. The family has also invested significantly to upgrade Rogers Arena with a special focus on fan experience since acquiring the team. And in the community, the family launched the Canucks Autism Network and support the Canucks for Kids Fund, the Boys Club Network and the the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.

Regular season success generated playoff excitement in the early 2000s but only one series win. On June 20, 2006 Alain Vigneault was named Head Coach and nine days later General Manager Dave Nonis traded for goaltender Roberto Luongo. In 2006-07, his first season as a Canuck, Luongo set franchise records for games played (76) and wins (47) and was nominated for the Hart and Vezina Trophies while Alain Vigneault received the Jack Adams Award.

That postseason a first-round series against Dallas produced the longest game in club history and sixth longest in NHL history when after 78:06 in the fourth overtime period, Henrik Sedin scored for the first win of the series. Vancouver won the seven game quarter-final match up but lost in the next round to Anaheim, the eventual Stanley Cup Champions.

That post-season run would also be the last for longtime Canucks Captain Trevor Linden who was reacquired in 2001 and would finish his playing career the following season, leaving as the franchise leader in games played (1140) and assists (415). Linden's number 16 became the second Canucks jersey to be retired when it was raised to the rafters at Rogers Arena on December 18, 2008.

Vancouver's next postseason appearance in 2009 led to a rivalry with Chicago that stretched three consecutive years. Following a four-game quarter-final sweep against St. Louis, the Canucks played the Blackhawks in a semi-final series, which Chicago won (4-2). In the 2010 playoffs another semi-final versus the Blackhawks produced the same 4-2 series result. It was an early ending to an impressive regular season, particularly for Henrik Sedin, who captured the Art Ross and Hart Trophy after a league-leading 112 point season (29-83-112).

The Canucks 2010/11 regular season was a franchise best with 117 points and a league-leading 54-19-9 record that saw the club awarded the President's Trophy. Individual success was further evidence of a successful season. Daniel Sedin led the NHL in scoring to win the Art Ross Trophy with 104 points (41-63-104) and the Ted Lindsay Award. Ryan Kesler was awarded the Frank J. Selke Trophy as the league's best defensive forward and goaltenders Roberto Luongo and Cory Schneider collectively allowed the fewest goals against in the NHL to earn the William Jennings Trophy.

Momentum from the regular season produced the third Stanley Cup run in team history and for the third postseason in a row the Canucks faced off against the Blackhawks - this time in a quarter-final playoff series. Vancouver won the first three games of the series however it took seven games to declare the winner and an overtime goal by Alex Burrows to finish a playoff rival. Current Canucks broadcaster John Shorthouse aptly described the memorable play that secured the series: "Burrows steals, cutting in, shoots, scores! They've played the dragon!"

In a semi-final series versus Nashville, Vancouver won 4-2, advancing to the conference final to play San Jose. This series was won by the Canucks 4-1 with a double-overtime goal from Kevin Bieksa securing a spot in the Finals. Three wins through five games against Boston put Vancouver within a win of the Championship but for the second time that postseason a seven game series became necessary. The Bruins bested the Canucks by a 4-0 score.

The 2011/12 regular season was again a NHL best with a 51-22-9 record and 111 points to produce a second consecutive President's Trophy. This time regular season success did not carry over to the postseason and the Canucks fell to the Kings in a first round playoff match-up. Two more early round exits in 2013 and 2015 leave Vancouver still in search of its first Championship. Despite not capturing hockey's greatest prize, Canucks fans supported a consecutive sellout streak at Rogers Arena of 474 games from 2002 to 2014, one of the longest in the history of professional sports.

Henrik and Daniel Sedin announced their retirement on April 2, 2018, bringing their franchise-leading 18 seasons with the Canucks to a close. In their final home game against the Arizona Coyotes on April 5, Daniel Sedin scored two goals, both assisted by his brother, including the overtime winner. Daniel also added a shootout goal in his final NHL game against the Oilers. Daniel retires leading the Canucks in goals (393), PPG (138), and game-winning goals (86), while Henrik leads in games played (1330), assists (830), and points (1070). The Sedins capped off their storied careers by being the first ever joint winners of the King Clancy Memorial Trophy.

RING OF HONOUR

RING OF HONOUR

The Canucks Ring of Honour was launched on the 40th anniversary of the club (the 2010-11 season) to celebrate and salute Canucks heroes who have made a lasting impact on the franchise. Ring of Honour candidates are selected by an advisory committee including former player and current Senior Advisor to the General Manager, Stan Smyl, Hockey Hall of Fame broadcaster, Jim Robson and former Canucks staff member spanning 30 years, Norm Jewison. Mattias Ohlund became the sixth member of the Canucks Ring of Honour on December 16th, 2016, joining Orland Kurtenbach, Kirk McLean, Thomas Gradin, Harold Snepsts, and Pat Quinn.

ORLAND KURTENBACH
INDUCTED OCTOBER 26, 2010

Recognized for his leadership qualities, Kurtenbach was named as the club's inaugural captain in 1970. In the Canucks first year of existence, he led all Canucks in points-per-game, registering 53 points (21-32-53) in 52 games played. His scoring would hit its peak with a career year in his sophomore season with the Canucks. He registered 61 points (24-37-61) in 78 games to lead the team in scoring in 1971-72. At the end of that season, he shared the team's leading scorer Cyrus H. McLean Trophy with winger Andre Boudrias and was awarded the Cyclone Taylor Trophy as the Canucks MVP. He would remain a fan favourite as the team MVP, again receiving the Cyclone Taylor Trophy the following two seasons. He retired as a player following the 1973-74 season but returned in the 1976-77 season as Head Coach of the Canucks, coaching 125 games. In addition to his contributions as a player and coach, Orland Kurtenbach has also continued giving back to the franchise through his involvement with the Canucks Alumni.

THOMAS GRADIN
INDUCTED JANUARY 24, 2011

Thomas Gradin became one of the first European-born players to wear a Canucks uniform, making his debut in 1978. Gradin went on to establish many franchise records, including becoming the first Canuck to register 80 points in a single season and the first Canuck to reach 500 career points. Scoring 38 points in his 38 games with the club, Gradin played a major role in the Canucks first run to the Stanley Cup Final in 1982. Gradin led the team in scoring twice from 1980-82, and finished his playing career with an impressive 593 points in 677 games played. Following the conclusion of his playing career, Gradin became a member of the Vancouver Canucks scouting department. He now serves as Associate Chief Amateur Scout and has played an instrumental role in the Canucks' selections of star players such as Daniel and Henrik Sedin, Mattias Ohlund and Alex Edler.

HAROLD SNEPSTS
INDUCTED MARCH 14, 2011

Harold Snepsts logged 12 seasons on the Canucks' defence corps and established himself as a fan favourite due to his aggressive and hard-working style. He was named to the NHL All-Star game twice, as well as won the Canucks' Babe Pratt trophy for Most Outstanding Defenceman on four occasions. In 1982, Snepsts' solid presence and consistency on the Canucks blueline assisted the team in their run to the Stanley Cup Final, recording four assists and 50 penalty minutes in 17 games played. At the conclusion of his playing career, Snepsts had established himself as the Canucks' all-time leader in games played for the franchise at 781 games, through which he recorded 195 points and a franchise-leading 1446 penalty minutes at the time. Snepsts returned to the Vancouver Canucks organization in a scouting capacity where he continues to serve as an amateur scout.

KIRK MCLEAN
INDUCTED NOVEMBER 24, 2010

The Canucks' longest-serving goalie at 11 seasons, "Captain Kirk" quickly established himself as one of the most dominant goaltenders in club history. McLean still holds the all-time regular season franchise record for games played (516), wins (211) and shutouts (20). McLean's consistent performance was rewarded with two appearances at the NHL All-Star Game in 1990 and 1992, as well as two Vezina Trophy nominations. His game elevated in the playoffs as evidenced by franchise records in wins (34), shutouts (6) and games played (68) during the postseason. Perhaps most memorable was his performance in the 1994 Stanley Cup Final run that included 15 wins and four shutouts that remain franchise records. McLean now serves as an Ambassador of the club, giving his time to a number of community and fan-driven events.

PAT QUINN
INDUCTED APRIL 13, 2014

One of the "original" Canucks, Pat Quinn dressed for two seasons as a defenceman, collecting 18 points in 133 games before embarking on an illustrious career as Head Coach, General Manager and President of the Vancouver Canucks. His integrity, leadership and vision helped build the franchise into a contender. Through trades and drafting, Quinn brought some of the most memorable and impactful players, including Trevor Linden, Pavel Bure, and Markus Naslund. As Head Coach, Quinn accumulated a record of 141-111-28 in the regular season and 31-30 in the playoffs. He won the Jack Adams Award in 1992, sharing the stage with Pavel Bure, as the first major League award for a Canuck, and led the Canucks to the second of three franchise Stanley Cup Finals. Quinn continued to be an active member of the Canucks alumni until his passing in 2014. He was inducted posthumously into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2016.

MATTIAS OHLUND
INDUCTED DECEMBER 16TH, 2016

Mattias Ohlund steadily progressed to become the most decorated defenceman in franchise history during his 11-year Canucks career and held the all-time record in points with 325, until 2018. With a punishing slap shot and a gift for offence, the Pitea, Sweden native scored 93 goals in 1,534 shots, which remain franchise records from the blue line today. Ohlund is a four-time recipient of the Babe Pratt Trophy awarded to the Canucks best defenceman (1998, 2000, 2004 and 2006), including his rookie season, when he was also nominated for the Calder Trophy. He was selected to the NHL All-Star Game in his sophomore season in 1999. In addition to being known for over a decade as the Canucks reliable anchor, Ohlund's leadership abilities left a lasting impact on the franchise. Donning an "A" on his sweater while with Vancouver, Ohlund acted as a mentor to a number of young Canucks, including Alex Edler and the Sedin twins.

Rule 9.6 – Helmets (Page 13)

A player on the ice whose helmet comes off during play shall be assessed a minor penalty if he does not exit the playing surface, or retrieve and replace his helmet properly on his head (with or without his chin strap fastened), within a reasonable period of time. It is reasonable if a player who is making a play on the puck or who is in the vicinity of the puck and engaged in the play at the time his helmet comes off, takes the opportunity to complete the play before either exiting the ice or retrieving and replacing his helmet.

If the player returns to his players' bench to be substituted for, he may only return to the ice during play with a helmet (with the chin strap properly fastened). No player may exit the penalty bench during play without a helmet (with the chin strap properly fastened). Should he do so, the play shall be stopped once his team has gained control of the puck and a minor penalty shall be assessed to the offending player.

A player who intentionally removes an opponent's helmet during play shall be assessed a minor penalty for roughing (See Rule 51).

Rule 20.6 – On-Ice Video Review of Major Penalties (Page 33)

Referees shall review all plays that result in the assessment of any Major Penalty (other than a Major Penalty for Fighting) for the purpose of confirming (or modifying) their original call on the ice.

Such reviews will be conducted exclusively by the Referee(s) on the ice in consultation with other On-Ice Official(s), as appropriate, using the technology (for example, a handheld tablet or a television or computer monitor) specified in and provided pursuant to Rule 38.5.

Communication between the Situation Room and the On-Ice Officials shall be limited to contact between the appropriate Game Logger in the Situation Room and the Referee to ensure the Referee is receiving any and all video they might request, as well as the appropriate replay angles they may need to review the penalty call. There shall be no other contact or consultation between the On-Ice Official(s) and the NHL Situation Room, or with any other non-game participant.

The Referee shall only have the following options following video review of his own call: (i) confirming his original Major Penalty call; or (ii) reducing his original Major Penalty call to a lesser penalty for the same infraction.

Rule 21.5 – On-Ice Video Review of Match Penalties (Page 34)

Referees shall review all plays that result in the assessment of any Match Penalty for the purpose of confirming (or modifying) their original call on the ice.

Such reviews will be conducted exclusively by the Referee(s) on the ice in consultation with other On-Ice Official(s), as appropriate, using the technology (for example, a handheld tablet or a television or computer monitor) specified in and provided pursuant to Rule 38.5.

Communication between the Situation Room and the On-Ice Officials shall be limited to contact between the appropriate Game Logger in the Situation Room and the Referee to ensure the Referee is receiving any and all video they might request, as well as the appropriate replay angles they may need to review the penalty call. There shall be no other contact or consultation between the On-Ice Official(s) and the NHL Situation Room, or with any other non-game participant.

The Referee shall have the following options following such review: (i) confirming his original Match Penalty call; or (ii) reducing his original Match Penalty call to a lesser penalty for the same infraction.

Rule 37 – Video Review (Pages 62-65)

37.1 – NHL Situation Room/Video Goal Judge

The NHL will staff a centralized Situation Room with experienced Hockey Operations professionals to watch all games (Regular Season and Playoffs) and to work in conjunction with the On- and Off-Ice Officials in every arena in reviewing all goals and disputed and controversial plays and rendering decisions in accordance with the specific parameters set forth herein.

The NHL will designate an Off-Ice Official to serve in the role of Video Goal Judge in every arena for every game (Regular Season and Playoffs). The Video Goal Judge will be located in a secluded area in the upper level of the building with an unobstructed view of both goals. The location must be large enough to seat four (4) people (Video Goal Judge, Video Technician, Supervisor of Officials and NHL Hockey Operations representative) and must have space for necessary monitors, replay and recording equipment.

The NHL Situation Room and the Video Goal Judge shall both have access to all replays that may be available from all available broadcasts of the game. Both the NHL Situation Room and the Video Goal Judge shall also be equipped with state-of-the-art communications systems that will allow direct and immediate access to the Off-Ice Official(s) at the penalty bench and the On-Ice Official(s).

37.2 – Goal Review Procedures

Every goal shall be reviewed by the NHL Situation Room. If there is a need to delay the resumption of the play following an apparent goal, the Off-Ice Official at ice level will be alerted to signal one of the Referees to delay the center-ice face-off for a moment. Once the NHL Situation Room has reviewed the video and confirmed that the goal is valid, the Off-Ice Official at ice level should signal to the Referee to resume play.

If an expanded review is required on any potential goal, the Situation Room shall instruct that the in-arena horn be sounded and the Public Address Announcer will make an announcement that the "play is under review." Once the play has been reviewed and deemed a goal, the goal will be announced in the normal manner. If the review reveals that the goal should be disallowed, the Referee shall announce the reason for the disallowed goal.

When the NHL Situation Room observes an incident involving a potential goal that was undetected by the On-Ice Officials, the Off-Ice Official will contact the Referee at the first stoppage of play and inform him that a review of the play is in progress. The Public Address Announcer will make an announcement that "the play is under review." If the review reveals that the goal should be counted, the clock (including penalty time clocks, if applicable) shall be re-set to the time the goal was scored. If the review reveals that no goal was scored, no adjustment to the time clock(s) will be made.

Only one goal can be awarded at any stoppage of play. If an apparent goal was scored by Team A, and is subsequently confirmed as a goal by the NHL Situation Room, any goal scored by Team B during the period of time between the apparent goal by Team A and the stoppage of play (Team B's goal), the Team B goal would not be awarded. If the apparent goal by Team A is deemed to have entered the goal illegally (e.g., a "distinct kicking motion"), the goal will be disallowed by the NHL Situation Room; no goal will be awarded to Team B either in this circumstance since the play should have been stopped at the time of the apparent goal. The clock (including penalty time clocks, if applicable) shall be re-set to the time of Team A's apparent goal - whether awarded or disallowed.

Delayed penalties signaled before an apparent goal that is subsequently confirmed as a good goal shall be deemed nullified by the awarding of the goal. (See Rules 16.2 and 18.2) Any penalties signaled during the period of time between the apparent goal and the next stoppage of play shall be assessed and served in the normal course. The time of the penalty will be recorded as the time the awarded goal was actually scored.

When the Referee indicates there is a Video Review in progress, all Players (with the exception of the goalkeepers) should proceed to their respective Players' Bench immediately, and failure to do so may result in a Game Misconduct penalty for offending Player(s) with a fine to the Coach.

Any potential goal requiring video review must be reviewed prior to and/or during the next stoppage of play. No goal may be awarded (or disallowed) as a result of a Video Review once the puck has been dropped and play has resumed.

The NHL Situation Room will connect directly with the Referee at ice level to assist with the review of any close play or disputed goal. The NHL Situation Room's decision shall be final.

37.3 – Goal Situations Subject to Video Review

The following situations are subject to review by the NHL Situation Room:

- Puck crossing the goal line;
- Puck in the net prior to the goal frame being dislodged;
- Puck in the net prior to (or after) the expiration of time at the end of a period;
- With the use of a foot/skate, was a "distinct kicking motion" evident?
- Puck deliberately directed, batted, or thrown into the net by an attacking Player by any means (and with any part of his body) other than with his stick;
- Puck deflected directly into the net of an On-Ice Official;
- Puck struck or deflected into the net with a high-stick, above the height of the crossbar;
- Puck entering the net in a proper manner through goal mouth (ensuring puck did not enter net improperly through net meshing or underneath the net frame, etc.);
- Puck entering the net as the culmination of a continuous play where the result of the play was unaffected by any whistle blown by the Referee upon his losing sight of the puck; and
- The legitimacy of all potential goals on Penalty Shot or Shootout attempts to ensure compliance with applicable rules (e.g., double tap, goalkeeper throwing stick, goalkeeper dislodging goal, shooter cradling puck above the normal height of the shoulders, shooter performing illegal spin-o-rama move, skater's continued forward advancement of puck, goalkeeper leaving crease prior to puck touch at center ice, etc.)

37.4 – Distinct Kicking Motion

Plays that involve a puck entering the net as a direct result of a "distinct kicking motion" shall be ruled NO GOAL. A "distinct kicking motion," for purposes of Video Review, is one where the video makes clear that an attacking Player has deliberately propelled the puck with a kick of his foot or skate and the puck subsequently enters the net. A goal cannot be scored on a play where an attacking Player propels the puck with his skate into the net (even by means of a subsequent deflection off of another Player) using a "distinct kicking motion." A goal also cannot be scored on a play where an attacking Player kicks any equipment (stick, glove, helmet, etc.) at the puck, including kicking the blade of his own stick, causing the puck to cross the goal line. A puck that deflects into the net off an attacking Player's skate who does not use a "distinct kicking motion" shall be ruled a GOAL. A puck that is directed into the net by an attacking Player's skate shall also be ruled a GOAL, as long as no "distinct kicking motion" is evident. (See also Rule 49.2)

37.5 – Puck Struck with a High Stick

The determining factor for High Stick Video Review is where the puck makes contact with the stick in relation to the crossbar. If the puck makes contact with a portion of the stick that is at or below the level of the crossbar (despite some other portion of the stick being above the crossbar) and enters the goal, the goal shall be allowed.

37.6 – Video Review to Verify Time on Clock

The NHL Situation Room may use Video Review to establish the correct time on the clock. The "burn in" of the game clock is mandatory for the two overhead goal video feeds, and should be made available by the host broadcaster on as many additional feeds as possible.

Any loss of time on the game or penalty clocks due to a false faceoff, a face-off violation or a puck going out of play must be replaced. The NHL Situation Room may be consulted or may intervene with Onand Off-Ice Officials directly, as appropriate, to ensure that any loss of time on the game or penalty clocks due to these situations is properly replaced. (See also Rule 76.8 and Rule 85.7)

In the event of any dispute regarding time, the matter shall be referred to the NHL Situation Room for adjustment, and its decision shall be final. The Game Timekeeper shall assist to verify game time via an additional timing device (NHL approved stopwatch).

In the event that a Video Review shows that a goal was scored prior to the play being stopped, the NHL Situation Room will inform the Game Timekeeper and Official Scorer of the time of the goal and the amount of playing time left to be re-set on the game clock and penalty time clocks (if applicable). (See Rule 34.7)

Should the NHL Situation Room be able to determine that a goal has been scored through the use of video replay, and play on the ice has nonetheless continued, the NHL Situation Room shall instruct that the in-arena horn be sounded to stop play immediately, and the goal will be awarded. The game clock (and penalty clocks, if applicable) will then be re-set to the time of the goal.

Should the first stoppage of play following an apparent goal coincide with the end of a period, the On-Ice Official(s) will instruct both teams to remain at their respective Players' Bench until the Video Review of the play can be completed.

Rule 38 – Coach's Challenge (Pages 65-69)

Rule 38.1 – General

The video review mechanism triggered by the Coach's Challenge can only be utilized in GOAL/NO GOAL situations and is intended to be extremely narrow in scope. In all Coach's Challenge situations, the original call on the ice will be overturned if, and only if, a conclusive and irrefutable determination can be made on the basis of video evidence that the original call on the ice was clearly not correct. If a review is not conclusive and/or there is any doubt whatsoever as to whether the call on the ice was correct, the original call on the ice will be confirmed.

Rule 38.2 – Situations Subject to Coach's Challenge

A team may only request a Coach's Challenge to review the following scenarios:

- "Off-Side" Play Leading to a Goal – A play that results in a "GOAL" call on the ice where the defending team claims that the play should have been stopped by reason of an "Off-Side" infraction by the attacking team (see Rule 83 – Off-Side);
- Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone Leading to a Goal – A play that results in a "GOAL" call on the ice where the defending team claims that the play should have been stopped by reason of any play occurring in the offensive zone that should have resulted in a play stoppage but did not; and

(c) Scoring Plays Involving Potential "Interference on the Goalkeeper" – Either: (i) A play that results in a "GOAL" call on the ice where the defending team claims that the goal should have been disallowed due to "Interference on the Goalkeeper" (as described in Rules 69.1, 69.3 and 69.4); or (ii) A play that results in a "NO GOAL" call on the ice despite the puck having entered the net, where the On-Ice Officials have determined that the attacking team was guilty of "Interference on the Goalkeeper" but where the attacking team claims: (A) there was no actual contact of any kind initiated by an attacking Player with the goalkeeper; (B) the attacking Player was pushed, shoved or fouled by a defending Player which caused the attacking Player to come into contact with the goalkeeper; or (C) the attacking Player's positioning within the goal crease did not impair the goalkeeper's ability to defend his goal and, in fact, had no discernable impact on the play.

Rule 38.3 – League Initiated Challenge

In the final minute of play in the 3rd Period and at any point in Overtime (Regular Season and Playoffs), the NHL Situation Room will initiate the review of any scenario that would otherwise be subject to a Coach's Challenge.

The NHL Situation Room will continue to be responsible for the review of all goals subject to Video Review under Rule 37. Where a Coach's Challenge is available on a scoring play potentially involving "Off-Side," a "Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone" or "Interference on the Goalkeeper," Hockey Operations will, as an initial and threshold matter, determine that the puck entered the net legally before the play will be subject to further review by means of a Coach's Challenge [or, in the final minute of play or in Overtime, a review initiated by Hockey Operations].

If a team requests a Coach's Challenge but Video Review under Rule 37 renders such Challenge unnecessary, then the Challenge will have been deemed not to have been made.

Rule 38.4 – Process for Initiating a Coach's Challenge

All Coach's Challenges must be initiated by notice verbally communicated to a Referee prior to the center ice face-off following a GOAL or, in the case of a NO GOAL call by reason of "Interference on the Goalkeeper," prior to the resumption of play. Teams may not unduly delay the resumption of play while evaluating whether or not to initiate a Coach's Challenge. Any such delay or delay tactics may result in the denial of a right to Challenge and, at the discretion of the Referee, may also result in a minor penalty for "Delaying the Game" under Rule 63.

In order to expedite the review process, Coaches initiating a Coach's Challenge are required to provide to the Referee, with reasonable specificity, both the reason for their Challenge (i.e., the actual infraction that is being claimed) and the approximate time on the clock when the purported infraction transpired. Failure to provide this information with reasonable specificity may result in the denial of a right to Challenge.

NOTE: Only one Coach's Challenge per team per stoppage will be permitted.

Rule 38.5 – Process for Reviewing a Coach's Challenge

The League will make available in all arenas suitable technology (for example, a handheld tablet or a television or computer monitor) that will allow the On-Ice Officials, in conjunction with the NHL Situation Room, to review video replays of the play giving rise to the Coach's Challenge [or, in the final minute of play or in Overtime, the play that caused the NHL Situation Room to initiate the review]. To the extent practical and possible, the replays made available to the On-Ice Officials will be the same replays that are being utilized by the NHL Situation Room.

Once a Coach's Challenge has been initiated [or, in the final minute of play or in Overtime, a review is initiated by the NHL Situation

Room], the NHL Situation Room will immediately establish contact with the On-Ice Official(s) responsible for the call (or non-call) on the ice via the headset and will inquire and discuss with the On-Ice Official(s), prior to the On-Ice Official reviewing any video, the following: (i) the On-Ice Official's "final" call on the ice; and (ii) what the On-Ice Official(s) observed on the play.

During all games (Regular Season and Playoffs), the NHL Situation Room will be staffed with at least one retired On-Ice Official to assist in the review of Coach's Challenges [including those initiated by the NHL Situation Room], and such retired Official will be involved both in communicating with the On-Ice Officials via the headset and with providing input to the Hockey Operations person responsible for making the "final" decision by the NHL Situation Room.

The on-ice call will then be reviewed simultaneously by the appropriate On-Ice Official(s) at ice level and by the staff in the NHL Situation Room using any and all replays at their disposal. After their joint review and consultation, the NHL Situation Room will render the "final" decision on whether to uphold or overturn the original call on the ice. Once a decision is made, the Referee will inform the Penalty Timekeeper/Public Address Announcer and will make the announcement on the ice.

Rule 38.6 – Right to Initiate a Coach's Challenge

Teams may initiate a Coach's Challenge on appropriate plays at any time during the game except during the final minute of play in Regulation time or at any time during Overtime (Regular Season and Playoffs), at which point the exclusive right to initiate a review of any scenario that would otherwise be subject to a Coach's Challenge shifts to the NHL Situation Room.

Rule 38.7 – Results of a Successful Coach's Challenge

In cases where a Challenge has been initiated for an "Off-Side Play Leading to a Goal" or a "Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone Leading to a Goal" (either by a team or by the NHL Situation Room), and a determination is made that the GOAL call on the ice should be overturned, the goal will be disallowed and the clock will be re-set to the time at which the play should have been stopped for the missed infraction. In such cases, a face-off will ensue in the ice location where it would have otherwise occurred had the on-ice infraction been called properly. If one or more penalties (minor or major) are assessed between the time of the missed infraction and the video review that disallows the apparent goal, the offending team(s) (and responsible Player(s)) will still be required to serve the penalty(ies) identified and assessed, and the time of the penalty(ies) will be recorded as the time at which the play should have been stopped for the missed infraction.

In cases where a Challenge has been initiated for a "GOAL" call on the ice where the defending team claims that the goal should have been disallowed due to the "Interference on the Goalkeeper," as described in Rules 69.1, 69.3 and 69.4, and a determination is made that the call on the ice should be overturned, the goal will be disallowed and a face-off will ensue in the nearest neutral zone faceoff spot outside the attacking zone. The video review process on these plays (whether initiated by way of a Coach's Challenge or by the NHL Situation Room in the final minute of play or in Overtime) will be utilized exclusively for purposes of overturning a "GOAL" call on the ice - it will not be utilized for any other purpose, including, specifically, for assessing minor or major penalties for Goalkeeper Interference.

In cases where a Challenge has been initiated for a "NO GOAL" call on the ice despite the puck having entered the net, where the On-Ice Officials have determined that the attacking team was guilty of "Interference on the Goalkeeper," and a determination is made that the call on the ice should be overturned, the goal will be allowed and a face-off will ensue at center ice.

RECENT NHL RULE CHANGES (2019.20)

Rule 38.8 – Results of an Unsuccessful Coach's Challenge

If a team initiates a Coach's Challenge for any of the enumerated scenarios in Rule 38.2 above and such Challenge does not result in the original call on the ice being overturned, the team exercising such Challenge shall be assessed a minor penalty (2:00) for delaying the game.

If a team that has already initiated one or more Challenges that were unsuccessful, initiates a Coach's Challenge for any of the enumerated scenarios in Rule 38.2 above and such Challenge does not result in the original call on the ice being overturned, the team exercising such Challenge shall be assessed a double-minor penalty (4:00) for delaying the game.

Rule 38.9 – Applicable Standards for "Off-Side" Challenge

The standard for overturning the call in the event of a "GOAL" call on the ice is that the NHL Situation Room, after reviewing any and all available replays and consulting with the On-Ice Official(s), determines that one or more Players on the attacking team preceded the puck into the attacking zone prior to the goal being scored and that, as a result, the play should have been stopped for an "Off-Side" infraction; where this standard is met, the goal will be disallowed.

Goals will only be subject to review for a potential "Off-Side" infraction if the puck does not come out of the attacking zone again between the time of the "Off-Side" infraction and the time the goal is scored.

Rule 38.10 – Applicable Standards for "Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone" Challenge

The standard for overturning the call in the event of a "GOAL" call on the ice is that the NHL Situation Room, after reviewing any and all available replays and consulting with the On-Ice Official(s), determines that the play should have been stopped but was not at some point after the puck entered the attacking zone but prior to the goal being scored; where this standard is met, the goal will be disallowed.

Potential infractions that would require a play stoppage in the offensive zone include, but may not be limited to: Hand Pass (Rule 79); High-Sticking the Puck (Rule 80); and Puck Out of Bounds (Rule 85). Such infractions will only serve as a basis for overturning a GOAL call on the ice if video review can conclusively establish that a game stoppage event had occurred in the offensive zone and was missed by the On-Ice Official(s). Where the infraction at issue was a missed penalty call subject to the judgment or discretion of the On-Ice Official(s), such infraction cannot result in the "GOAL" call on the ice being overturned, even if upon review, the On-Ice Official(s) would have made a different call. Goals will only be reviewed for a potential "Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone" if the puck does not come out of the attacking zone again between the time of the "Missed Game Stoppage Event in the Offensive Zone" and the time the goal is scored.

Rule 38.11 – Applicable Standards for Potential "Interference on the Goalkeeper" Challenge

The standard for overturning the call in the event of a "GOAL" call on the ice is that the NHL Situation Room, after reviewing any and all replays and consulting with the On-Ice Official(s), determines that the goal should have been disallowed due to "Interference on the Goalkeeper," as described in Rules 69.1, 69.3 and 69.4; where this standard is met, the goal will be disallowed.

The standard for overturning the call in the event of a "NO GOAL" call on the ice is that the NHL Situation Room, after reviewing any and all replays and consulting with the On-Ice Official(s), determines that the goal on the ice should have been allowed because either: (i) there was no actual contact of any kind initiated by the attacking Player with the goalkeeper; or (ii) the attacking Player was pushed, shoved or fouled by the defending Player causing the attacking Player to come into contact with the goalkeeper; or (iii) the attacking Player's positioning within the crease did not impair the goalkeeper's ability to defend his goal and, in fact, had no discernible impact on the play; where this standard is met, the goal will be allowed.

Rule 60.3 – Double-minor Penalty (Page 93)

When a player carries or holds any part of his stick above the shoulders and makes contact with his opponent's neck, face or head so that injury results, in the manner of drawing blood or otherwise, the Referee shall assess a double-minor penalty. Referees making this call shall have the option (but not the obligation) to review video of the play for the purpose of confirming (or not) their original call on the ice, and, in particular, whether the stick causing the apparent injury was actually the stick of the Player being penalized. Such reviews will be conducted exclusively by the Referee(s) on the ice in consultation with other On-Ice Officials, as appropriate, using the technology (for example, a handheld tablet or television or computer monitor) provided for the Official(s) at ice level. On any such review, the only contact between the On-Ice Official(s) and the NHL Situation Room shall be for the sole purpose of ensuring the Referee is receiving any and all video he may request and that he has access to all the appropriate replay angles he may need to review the penalty call. There shall be no other consultation between the Referee and the NHL Situation Room, or with any other non-game participant.

Rule 63.6 – Awarded Goal (Page 97)

If the goal post is deliberately displaced by a goalkeeper during the course of a "breakaway," a goal will be awarded to the non-offending team.

Rule 63.7 – No Line Change (Pages 97-98)

In the event that the goal post is displaced accidentally by a defending player causing a stoppage in play, the ensuing face-off shall be conducted at one of the end zone face-off spots in the defending zone. The offending team shall not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the face-off. However, a team shall be permitted to make a player substitution to replace a goalkeeper who had been substituted for an extra attacker, to replace an injured player, or when a penalty has been assessed which affects the on-ice strength of either team.

In the event that the puck is shot into the end zone by the attacking team from their own side of the center red line, and the opposing goalkeeper freezes the puck resulting in a stoppage of play, the ensuing face-off shall be conducted at one of the end zone faceoff spots in the goalkeeper's defending zone. The defending team shall not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the face-off. However, a team shall be permitted to make a player substitution to replace an injured player, or when a penalty has been assessed which affects the on-ice strength of either team.

In addition, for both situations outlined in this section, for the ensuing face-off in the defending zone, the attacking team will have the choice of which end zone dot the face-off will take place.

Rule 76.2 – Face-off Locations (Page 114)

The team awarded the power-play will have the choice of which end zone dot the face-off will take place at to start the power-play.

Rule 81.2 – Face-Off Location (Page 124)

Following an icing, the attacking team will have the choice of which end zone dot the face-off will take place.

Rule 85.1 – Puck Out of Bounds (Page 133)

When a puck goes outside the playing area at either end or either side of the rink, strikes any obstacles above the playing surface other than the boards or glass, causes the glass, lighting, timing device or the supports to break, it shall be faced-off at the nearest face-off spot in the zone from where it was shot or deflected out of play.

Rule 85.5 – Face-Off Location (Page 134)

Should any player cause the puck to go out of play or become unplayable in any zone, the face-off shall take place at the face-off spot in the zone from which the puck was shot. If deflected out of play, at the nearest face-off spot in the zone where it deflected out of play.

For a puck that is unplayable due to being lodged in the netting or as a result of it being frozen between opposing players, the resulting face-off shall be at either of the adjacent face-off spots or at the nearest face-off spot in the zone from which the puck was shot, unless otherwise covered in these rules.

If the attacking team shoots the puck into the zone and a delayed off-side is indicated, or if the attacking team commits a game flow infraction such as contacting the puck with a high-stick or batting the puck with a glove (causing a stoppage of play), the ensuing face-off shall be in the neutral zone outside the offending team's attacking zone.

ASSIST

An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touch the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED

A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or ii) serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL

After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

GOAL

A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE

Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

GOALTENDER

A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE

Subtract the total number of power play goals allowed from total number of short-handed situations to get total number of power plays killed. Divide the total number of power plays killed by the total number of short-handed situations.

PLUS/MINUS

A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or short-handed goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or short-handed goal scored by the opposing Club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus/minus statistic.

POWER PLAY GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that Club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE

Total number of power play goals divided by total number of power play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE

Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots against.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

SHORT-HANDED GOAL

A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for short-handed as for power play goals, but in the opposite manner.

SHOT ON GOAL

If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal".

SHUTOUT

If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

COACH'S RECORD

A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.
